

Truman Institute Summer Programs

Video Producer's Job Description

The Video Producer's job is very important. This person documents all the fun and academic activities occurring during our summer programs – particularly the Joseph Baldwin Academy and the Summer Talent Academy for Professions in Health.

During each session of the Joseph Baldwin Academy the Video Producer completed one 90-minute DVD summarizing the events of the Academy, as well as one 10-minute preview video for display at the Academy's Closing Ceremonies.

This is a very time consuming job. The successful applicant will be expected to complete the JBA Session I DVD within two weeks of the end of Session I. At the same time, the Producer will also be working on taping events during Session II. The Session II DVD will need to be completed two weeks following Session II. Since housing is unavailable once Session II ends and the Producer may still be working to complete the Session II DVD, utilizing other housing arrangements or this individual will need to have access to the same equipment/software they have been using on campus at their permanent residence.

BEFORE THE ACADEMY

The Video Producer is required to attend orientation during the spring and participate in several days of training prior to the Academy session.

DURING THE ACADEMY

- Ⓢ Find non-copyrighted or royalty free music to be used in the DVD (some such materials are available on campus).
- Ⓢ Film activities in each JBA class including attending some class field trips.
- Ⓢ Film all major activities - Below is a list of the all Academy events which occur both during the week and weekend.
- Ⓢ Film an assortment of activities held each night of the week.
- Ⓢ Interview all professors for the DVD while the session is in progress.
- Ⓢ Take pictures/create still frames for the memory book.
- Ⓢ Create a preview of the DVD to be shown on the final day of the Academy (approximately 10 minutes).
- Ⓢ Create a master DVD (approximately 1.5 hours) of all filmed activities. The DVD should contain menus, lists of all students in each class, the preceptors in each class, list of all staff, and the names of the Dean and the Assistant to the Dean.

Note: videos must contain all original, non-copyrighted material.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- ◆ The Video Producer will live with staff, preceptors and students in the residence hall. Arrangements for housing between sessions is available.
- ◆ The salary is $1300 per session plus room and board.
- ◆ The Video Producer may not be enrolled in summer classes during the Academy.
- ◆ The Video Producer needs to be available to capture the unpredictable.
- ◆ The Video Producer is a representative of Truman State University and is expected to act in a manner befitting this responsibility.

CONTRACT DATES

- ◆ Session I: June 5 – June 30, 2019; Session II: July 3 - July 28, 2019 (or until the master videos for each session are completed). Any side assignments for recording other Truman Institute events will be contained within the above-mentioned dates.
- ◆ The Video Producer must arrive and be moved in by 12:00 pm on June 5 & July 3.
- ◆ Training will begin after lunch.

PROGRAM DATES

- ◆ Session I: June 8– June 29, 2019; Session II: July 6 - July 27, 2019

EQUIPMENT REQUIREMENTS

Access to the required equipment is essential to completing the work of the Video Producer. The Truman Institute will supply an HD Video Camera, a tripod, and a lapel microphone. An HD- quality Flip Video Camera is also available. The Producer may use their own recording equipment provided they can demonstrate the quality of the product prior to use.

The Video Producer will be expected to provide:

- <sup>35</sup>/<sub>17</sub> Their own computer with sufficient storage space to manage captured and edited video. An external hard drive is available on request. The Truman Institute cannot move desktop units into the dorm.
- <sup>35</sup>/<sub>17</sub> Their own software for editing and producing the DVD (Avid, Final Cut, or Adobe Premiere are preferable. Windows Movie Maker is not acceptable.) Students with regular access to editing equipment and software (such as TMN-TV employees) may rely on those facilities provided they secure the consent of managing faculty and students.
- <sup>35</sup>/<sub>17</sub> Students are reminded that a number of high-quality video production tools are available during limited hours in Pickler Memorial Library.
